

British Safety Council can confirm that a remote based review of

Dummy Company Limited

policies, procedures and arrangements relating to control of COVID-19 within the workplace was carried out on 25 May 2020.

The protocols and associated control arrangements were considered to be in accordance with current UK government and sector specific guidelines at the time of the review and arrangements for continual monitoring of their effectiveness were in place.

Recommendations for improvements/enhancements were offered for consideration during this process.
